BAKKIE-ENJINS GAAN WEER BRUL OP NAMPO PARK

BOTHAVILLE – 31 Januarie 2011 – Op Saterdag, 26 Februarie gaan die bakkie-enjins weer brul wanneer die tweede Engen OFM Bakkiedag Musiekfees aangebied word op Nampo Park in Bothaville. Dié dag word in samewerking met Graan SA aangebied, en soos laasjaar verwag organiseerders duisende besoekers van heinde en ver om die unieke dag mee te maak.

Feesgangers word genooi om in hul mooiste, oudste en bes versierde bakkies te kom – nie net is daar hope pryse te wen nie, maar ook spesiale parkering vir hul bakkies. Hulle kan ook uitsien na verskeie uitstallers van bakkies en bakkie-toerusting. Volgens Wim Venter van Graan SA bied die feesdag 'n unieke platform vir alle uitstallers. Daar is nog 'n paar uitstal ruimtes beskikbaar en om 'n stalletjie te bespreek kan Wim gekontak word by Graan SA of stuur 'n epos aan wim@grainsa.co.za.

Van die land se voorste kunstenaars soos Nicholis Louw, Gerhard Steyn, Nadine, die Idols finalis Pieter West en Melissa le Grange gaan feesgangers heeldag op hul voete hou. Daar is ook 'n spesiale kinderarea met hope vermaak vir die kinders en 'n biertuin vir die dors waar daar beslis weer tot laat in die nag gekuier gaan word. Die OFM buiteuitsendingseenheid met omroepers Lindsay Batteson, Yolanda Maartens en Nico van der Westhuizen sal uitsaai van die dag af.

Toegangkaartjies kos slegs R100 per persoon vir die dag en kinders onder 12 kry gratis toegang. Kaartjies kan op die dag by by toegangshekke gekoop word of aanlyn bespreek word by www.ofm.co.za

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BAKKIE ENGINES WILL ROAR AT NAMPO PARK

BOTHAVILLE – 31 Janauary 2011 – Bakkie engines will be roaring at Nampo Park in Bothaville on Saturday, 26 February when thousands of bakkie owners, their families and friends will attend the second Engen OFM Bakkie Day Music Festival. The day is presented in association with Grain SA.

Festival goers are invited to arrive in their newest, oldest, best decorated and interesting bakkies – not only are there great prizes up for grabs, but also a special parking area for the vehicles. According to Wim Venter from Grain SA, festival goers can look forward to some interesting exhibitions of bakkies and four wheel gear. There are still some exhibition spots available at this unique festival and interested exhibitors can contact Wim at wim@grainsa.co.za or visit their website – www.grainsa.co.za for an application form.

Some of South Africa's top artists such as Nicholis Louw, Gerhard Steyn, Nadine, Idols finalist Peter West and Melissa le Grange will keep the crowd entertained and on their feet. Children can look forward to a playing area designed only for them, while the thirsty can quench their thirst in the beer garden. OFM presenters Lindsay Batteson, Yolanda Maartens and Nico van der Westhuizen will broadcast live from the stations outside broadcast unit and people are welcome to come and meet them.

Tickets for the day cost only R100 per person and kids under 12 can go in for free. Tickets can be bought at the entrance gates on the day or booked online at www.ofm.co.za.
